This renowned choir meets annually for a Residential Choral Course, led by Richard Roddis and Esteve Costa, usually at Easter. The group of around 24 singers hasn't been able to meet at all for two years, so a special Weekend Course has been arranged, culminating in this concert, entitled Ring Out, Wild Bells!

Tennyson's New Year poem, particularly apt at a time when choirs nationwide seek to make New Beginnings, will be sung in a thrilling setting by Jonathan Dove. The concert will showcase the choir in the best music – music the soul has been aching to experience these last months of enforced silence!

St Mary's Restoration Project. The Sanctuary window (The Jesse Tree Window) is the current focus – read about the project in the current Parish Newsletter:

Don't miss what is likely to be one of the first live choir concerts back on the scene.

Please expect to wear a mask and maintain social distance.
